Vaccines: In order to board your pet(s), vaccines must have been given per clinic standards. If your pet(s) have not received it's vaccines at this facility, you must show documentation from another licensed veterinarian that verifies current vaccines. If any vaccinations are past due, your pet(s) must be vaccinated before boarding for his/her protection, as well as the protection of the other animals. Vaccines administered at this facility will be at your expense.

Parasites: All pets must be free from external (e.g. Flea, ticks, etc) and internal parasites (e.g. hookworms, roundworms, etc). At our discretion, if internal or external parasites are found, the cost of treatment will be at your expense.

Diet: We routinely feed a premium maintenance dry food appropriate for the age of your pet. Prescription diets or canned diets are available and will be added to you bill unless provided by you.

Medication: We will administer any required medications to your pet(s) for an additional charge. The charge is $1.08 per dose, per day, per medication.

Medical services: Medical services may be done for your pet(s) while he/she is boarded. I understand that there will be charges associated with these services.

Boarding is charged for each night of your pet(s) stay, regardless of the time admitted or released

Pets must be picked up during normal office hours. We are unable to discharge pets after hours.

Personal items may be left at your own risk. We are not responsible for lost or damaged items.

FWAMC can not guarantee the health of any animal, but pledges to give appropriate care to all boarded pets. I hold the hospital harmless for conditions that often are unavoidable in boarding environments such as but not limited to, weight loss, kennel cough, upper respiratory infection, diarrhea.

I agree to make full payment to FWAMC at the time of discharge.

I understand that if I fail to pick up my pet(s) within 12 days of scheduled pick up, my pet(s) will be considered to be abandoned and will be handled in accordance with state law, doing so does not relieve me of my financial obligations.
